Plans To Answer Appeal For World Peace By Roosevelt

Urges President To Take Action In Coal Parley

Mayor LaGuardia Appeals To Roosevelt To Break Existing Deadlock

CONFERENCE IS AGAIN RESUMED

No Comment On Mayor's Appeal As Operators And Miners Again Convene

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 17.—Soft coal operators and mine union leaders met again today with the same noncommittal attitude that has characterized their prolonged wage-and-hour conference although faced with the possibility that President Roosevelt may take a hand in the situation at the urgent request of Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York.

Neither operators nor union would comment on the mayor's appeal as they convened this morning behind locked doors at their mid-town hotel meeting place.

Pleads For Intervention

In a telegram pleading for presidential intervention, Mayor LaGuardia painted a stark picture of disruption of the normal life of the nation's largest city unless the stalemate over a new contract is quickly broken and the 320,000 idle miners in the Appalachian field immediately resume work.

City officials meanwhile were preparing to "pipe" electricity from an upstate power company to keep the city subway in operation in the event of a shutdown of the power plants because of a lack of coal. A

PA NEW OBSERVES

Motorists coming up Rural avenue onto Park avenue, at noon Sunday, had a hard time avoiding running down a fine setter dog, belonging to someone in that neighborhood, which had gotten away. The dog evidently had sighted a bird, and was standing right out in the middle of the street, glued to the spot in a point.

Next week, starting with Monday, April 24, will be annual Clean-Up Week in Pennsylvania, when the citizens of the state are asked to observe the event by cleaning up their premises. More will be heard about the event during the coming week, but New Castle folks are urged to get prepared for the event and to be good citizens and cooperate with the state authorities in the matter.

While weather conditions for the opening of the trout fishing season on Saturday were such that few fish were caught, some of the Sunday fishermen report that conditions were better yesterday and that a considerable number of fine trout were taken from the streams of the district.

At Gaston Park the Japanese lilacs are ready to burst forth into leaves, the tamarack is in heavy bud and will be in leaf in about three or four days. The golden willow is now in leaf.

Italy Shows Resentment Over Roosevelt Message

By EDWARD STORER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, April 17.—Initial Italian reaction to President Roosevelt's long-tenured peace plea, closely adhering to the line taken by Germany, today reflected official resentment over the "insolence" of the message.

A Reuters message to London quoted Il Messaggero, important Rome newspaper, as saying Mr. Roosevelt's note must be considered an act of war.

Flat rejection of the Roosevelt proposals was promised in the few inspired comments.

Negative Reply
The authoritative newspaper La

Stampa of Turin, under the signature of its editor, Alfredo Signoretto, said:

"In our immediate judgment, the reply cannot be anything but an absolute negative. Above all this must be so because of the inopportune time in which it was sent."

"It seems as if the function of the man in the White House is that of huddling the possibilities of clarification."

"Can it be that this is due to the influence and pressure of Judaism?" asked La Stampa, "or can it be that the head of the American confederation speaks unconsciously in a language that is not in keeping with realities or events?"

"Or is he launching his message

Legislature Will Resume Tonight

Struggle Over Finances And New Taxation Confronting State Body

ADJOURNMENT IS EXPECTED BY JUNE

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, April 17.—A struggle between proponents of new taxation at the present session and administration leaders supporting Gov. Arthur H. James' demand for postponement until a special session, if necessary, was expected as the general assembly prepared to reconvene tonight.

Most immediate debate, however, when the legislature reassembles after it week-end recess, is expected to be over fireworks legislation in the house and over the Philadelphia city charter bill in the senate.

Adjourn Before June

Adherence to Governor James' suggestion that the legislature await final court action on the franchise tax before imposing new taxes would bring nearer to fruition the administration's hopes for a sine die adjournment before June.

Governor James' pronouncement was also expected to bring about early approval in the senate of the $163,000,000 emergency tax program, already passed by the house and now in senate committee. Only technical amendments are now expected.

An adverse decision by the state supreme court before adjournment or additional adverse tax decisions, a possibility, would strengthen the

Departed Members Honored By Moose

Annual Memorial Service Held Sunday Night In Moose Hall

Honoring the memory of the members who have died in the past twelve months, the Loyal Order of Moose, Lodge No. 51, held its annual memorial service Sunday night in the assembly hall of the organization on South Mercer street. For the service the hall was filled.

Dictator A. G. Harbord had charge of the meeting with the Moose orchestra providing special music and prayer by the Prelate, Earl Wimer. The memorial oration was delivered by C. W. Herman Hess. The address was an appropriate one and in it Mr. Hess extolled the virtues of an organization that paused at times to remember the members who had once been active but had passed on.

During the past year eight members died. Their names follow: John Ayers, C. A. Vogan, James E. Jackson, George A. Rae, Harry W. Meckling, Charles H. Clark, Thomas J. Howell, Walter Findon.

Douglas Takes Place On Bench

Sworn In As Associate Justice Of United States Supreme Court

YOUNGEST JUDGE IN LAST CENTURY

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Forty-year-old William O. Douglas, the youngest appointee to the supreme court in more than a century, was sworn in today as an associate justice of the high tribunal.

A huge crowd overflowed into corridors of the supreme court building as Douglas, who rose from obscurity to national prominence in a few weeks, took the oath of office.

Attorney General Frank Murphy, Thomas Corcoran, Benjamin Cohen and Assistant Attorney Thurman Arnold were among those who saw Douglas take the oath.

Douglas, fourth youngest man in history to ascend the high bench, responded in a clear, firm voice as he took the oath to do justice "to the rich and poor alike."

The wife and children of the new justice; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas, brother and sister-in-law, and a sister, Miss Martha Douglas, were among those in the court room.

Chief Justice Hughes, who was absent from the court for several weeks because of illness, again presided today.

REPORT MORE ITALIAN TROOPS NOW IN SPAIN

(BULLETIN)

LONDON, April 17.—Premier Mussolini has sent at least two new battalions of Italian troops into Spain, the diplomatic correspondent of the London Evening Standard said he had learned on reliable authority today.

(Editor's Note: On April 6, an exclusive International News Service dispatch from Hendaye reported the arrival at Cadiz of two new Italian battalions. It could not be ascertained whether the Standard report referred to additional detachments or merely confirmed the earlier dispatch.)

Law Is Upheld By High Court

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The supreme court today upheld a Pennsylvania law empowering the Public Utility Commission to fix temporary rates, but it avoided the demand of the federal power commission for repudiation of a 41-year-old rate-making precedent.

The high court, reversing a three-judge federal court, sustained action of the Pennsylvania commission in ordering the Edison Light and Power Co., of York, Pa., to reduce its gross revenues $435,000 a year.

SAYS ROOSEVELT'S PEACE MESSAGE HAS STIRRED UP WORLD

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Secretary of State Cordell Hull today expressed the conviction that President Roosevelt's appeal to Chancellor Hitler and Premier Mussolini to halt further aggression has mobilized a world opinion for peace.

Hull described the Roosevelt peace message as:

Indicate Russia Will Join Britain-France Against Germany-Italy

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 17.—Inclusion of Russia's immense military power in the ring of steel around Germany and Italy was a long stride nearer today as a result of Anglo-Soviet conversations in Moscow, in which agreement in principle was reached on three quarters of all the major points raised.

British, French, and Russian sources in London confirmed that rapid progress was being made in the Moscow negotiations.

Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinov informed Sir William Seeds, the British ambassador, that he may expect a sober-minded senate. As the state department declared for a neutrality that will keep America out of any conflict abroad. The people of this country, he said, "want friendship with all nations, not entangling alliances and diplomatic commitments."

The state department, meanwhile, resignedly awaited the reply of Chancellor Hitler and Premier Mussolini to the president's appeal for peace. They expected flat rejection of any non-aggression pact, or conferences to bring about disarmament.

Officials were consoled, however, by almost solid support from the republics of this hemisphere. Sixteen communications praising the president's appeal have been received from Latin-American nations. Canada also was in the list of nations supporting the plea.

Our people, he told his colleagues, "want peace, not war."

A man of imposing figure, Walsh drew closest attention from the senate in his grave declaration for a neutrality that will keep America out of any conflict abroad. The people of this country, he said, "want friendship with all nations, not entangling alliances and diplomatic commitments."

Opening Game At Washington Is Called Off

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—With a sell-out crowd of 30,500 assured, owner Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators first called off, then called on, and finally—from the rain-drenched confines of Griffith stadium—called off the opening game of the 1939 baseball season between the Senators and the New York Yankees.

With cash in the till for 20,000 reserved seats, and the Senators scheduled to participate in opening-day activities with the Athletics in Philadelphia tomorrow, Griffith telephoned the White House at 10:30 a. m. to inform President Roosevelt, who was to throw out the first ball, that the contest had been postponed.

At that moment it had been raining incessantly, with few and brief interruptions, for 41 hours.

THIEVES STEAL MONEY, RADIATORS

Burglars were busy during the week end, according to reports to police. Phillip Perrotta, 1031 Croysome street, reported while away from home stole $18.10 from a desk in his home.

Robbers also entered the Moravia Auto Wrecking company and stole six radiators.

Nothing was stolen from a WPA warehouse, 210 West Washington street, although it was entered, police stated today.

French Warships Appear In Gibraltar Harbor Rather Suddenly Today

(International News Service)

GIBRALTAR, April 17.—Twelve French warships, under secret orders, appeared suddenly in Gibraltar harbor today as a mighty German naval fleet sailed southward for maneuvers off the Spanish coast.

Intense naval activity, with the French cooperating closely with the British authorities at the "Rock," started with the surprising arrival of the French fighting vessels.

The destroyers Le Terrible and Le Fantasque were the first to drop anchor off the south mole. They were followed shortly by the battleships Bretagne and Lorraine.

More Ships Arrive

Today the destroyers Mogador and Volta, both new ships, joined the growing fleet, and the seventh ship, the destroyer L'Audacieux, steamed in this afternoon.

Later arrivals were the cruisers La Galissoniere, Marsellaise and Jean De Vienna.

As the result of Spanish troop concentrations just north of the British fortress-colony during the last week, bringing some 5000 soldiers within striking distance of Gibraltar, Britain today continued extraordinary defense precautions.

It was not even stated from what port the French warships sailed. There is, however, a large concentration of French fighting vessels at Malta, the main British naval base in the Mediterranean.

At Malta the combined French-British fleet is estimated to number nearly 150 ships.

Rivers High, But No Flood Feared

Pittsburgh Does Not Expect Any Serious Flood Conditions As Result Of Heavy Rainfall

WEST VIRGINIA WOMAN DROWNED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 17.—Fed by rain-gorged streams high in the mountains in West Virginia, the Monongahela river continued its slow upward surge today but no real flood threat was expected in this populous center where the Ohio begins.

A crest of about 21 or 22 feet was expected at the "point" in Pittsburgh today, confluence of the Allegheny and Monongahela. Flood stage here is 25 feet.

Rain Is Heavy

A week end of heavy rain over the Monongahela watershed reportedly caused widespread damage in some sections and one death was directly attributable to the high water. In Salem, W. Va., Mrs. Jane Wanstreet, 55, was drowned Saturday night when she fell into the swollen Salem fork.

As a precautionary measure, residents in low sections were evacuated from their homes. Field agents for the Red Cross were on the scene directing relief work.

The continued rains in West Virginia gorged most of the smaller tributaries of the Monongahela and flooded out highways and farm land in some sections. Highways between Charleston and Bluefield, U. S. Route 21 from Parkersburg to Charleston and West Virginia Route 14 at Spencer were closed.

Young Business Man Found Dead In McKeesport

McKEESPORT, Pa., April 17.—Amid indications of foul play, Arthur Engelmann, young McKeesport business man, was found dead today in his McKeesport haberdashery shop.

Engelmann was cut about the head and face and apparently had been beaten during a struggle. His body lay in a pool of blood on a table in the rear of the store. Louis Engelmann, the victim's father, discovered the tragedy when he opened the store this morning.

Police said the store had not been robbed nor forcibly entered.

PARIS, April 17.—One of the most astounding developments yet to shake a war-fearing world—a reported threat by Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler against the entire western hemisphere—was disclosed to this correspondent today.

From a well-informed adviser in Europe, President Roosevelt was said to have received a verbatim transcript of a conversation between Hitler and one of his most trusted aides before the Fuehrer's occupation of Czechoslovakia, ostensibly disclosing his real ambition and intent of world conquest.

It was set forth as the underlying reason for President Roosevelt's peace appeal to the dictators on Saturday and for his whole policy of strengthening America's military, naval and diplomatic defenses against a menace to our national security.

Officials in HARRISBURG Mayor Charles E. McGrath, Councilman J. D. Alexander and City Engineer G. R. Throop were in Harrisburg today on official business. Finance Director J. L. Fink acted as chairman of council.

Hitler To Make Detailed Reply To President

To Voice Reply At Especially Called Reichstag Session, April 28

SEEK TO OVERCOME AGGRESSION CHARGES

Hitler Reconsiders Idea Of Dismissing Roosevelt's Message Summarily

By PIERRE J. HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, April 17.—Chancellor Hitler has called the reichstag into special session for April 28, when the fuehrer will voice his reply to President Roosevelt's anti-aggression proposals.

With the fuehrer adopting this unusual procedure, instead of replying through the customary diplomatic channels, it was believed he would employ a sharp tone, rejecting every implication that the Rome-Berlin axis powers are to be held responsible for any ill-will towards world peace.

To Answer Point By Point

Hitler, according to circles close to the chancellery, has decided to answer Mr. Roosevelt point-by-point "passing the ball" back to the president without mincing any words.

This, it was felt, is the only way to overcome the impression which German authorities believe Mr. Roosevelt sought to create in the world, that Germany and Italy are the only offending powers.

The official announcement of the summoning of the Reichstag showed that Hitler has given careful consideration to the Roosevelt message, abandoning a reported earlier decision to dismiss it summarily. The communique said:

To Make Attitude Known

"The American president directed a request to the fuehrer to make known his position with regard to certain questions."

"The fuehrer considers this matter so important that he has decided to make known his attitude to the American president in the name of the German people before the Reichstag. Therefore he summons the Reichstag for April 28 to let it bear his statement."

It may be assumed that among the chief points to be taken up by Hitler will be the present negotiations between Britain and Russia in Moscow, also diplomatic exchanges among Britain, France and the United States.

ROOSEVELT WITHDRAWALS AMLE APPPOINTMENT

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Recalling that "a quarter of a century ago I too was called a communist and a wild-eyed radical," President Roosevelt today withdrew from the senate the nomination of Thomas R. Amle, Wisconsin Progressive, to be a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"I deeply regret that a certain type of opposition should deprive the Interstate Commerce Commission of one as able and as wholeheartedly devoted to the public service as you are," the president wrote Amle.

He puts his hands down towards his toes, they seldom ever meet, but there are times they almost do and these he wants to beat. # U. S. Fleet Orders Serve As Warning

Report Japan Planned Move

Awaited Outbreak Of General World War To Seize New Land

HITLER PREPARING ANOTHER BLOW?

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright 1939)

WASHINGTON, April 17.—President Roosevelt's sudden decision to order immediate return of the fleet to the Pacific was caused by secret reports from European capitals that Chancellor Hitler was preparing a new lightning blow which probably would plunge Europe into the long-fought world war, it was learned today.

The sudden removal of the fleet from the Atlantic to the Pacific was directed at halting a new southward thrust by the other end of the axis, Japan.

Definite information reached Washington that Japan awaits only the outbreak of a general war in Europe to strike at French Indo-China, the Dutch East Indies and British Malay states, with the vital needed oil reserves, tin deposits, and rubber plantations—and even the Philippines.

With the British and French fleets tied up in the Mediterranean and North Sea, the American fleet would remain the only major impediment to Japanese conquest of Southeastern Asia and the rich East Indies.

Serves As Warning

At the same time, return of the American fleet to the Pacific at this critical moment in European affairs served as a warning to the German and Italian high commands that the United States was disposing of its defenses for their utmost effectiveness if war comes.

As paradoxical as it may seem for the fleet to be moved from the Atlantic to the Pacific with outbreak of a war in Europe feared, this is nevertheless, according to high naval authority, true. The combined British and French fleets are more than adequate to cope with the German and Italian fleets so that the latter could be dismissed as a threat to the Atlantic seaboard.

Even so, a reinforced Atlantic squadron of 56 warships is being left on the Atlantic to sweep these seas free of any raiders that might break through a British and French blockade.

By stationing the main American fleet in the Pacific world naval balance is restored and a checkmate offered the Japanese fleet.

ITALY SHOWS SOME RESENTMENT OVER ROOSEVELT MESSAGE

in a maneuver which ought to have results in the elections of 1940?"

Premier Mussolini discussed the Roosevelt message over the weekend with Field Marshal Hermann Goering of Germany, who is here carrying on talks regarding joint aviation and military operations with Italian staff officers. Mussolini also was in contact with Chancellor Hitler, it was understood.

So far as Mr. Roosevelt's suggestion of an international conference is concerned, it was felt, Mussolini would be willing to enter such a parley only if Britain and France came ready to make concessions to Italy's territorial demands.

Rome's official reply to Washington is expected in a couple of days. Meanwhile, the Fascist powers' latest conquest was sealed when King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena accepted the crowns of Albania.

The ceremony took place in the Royal Quirinal palace, with Premier Mussolini present. Shevket Verlaci, the Albanian premier, presented the crown of ex-king Zog to Victor Emmanuel, who accepted with the pledge that Albania's language, traditions, and religion would be preserved.

No Right To Intervene

Rome, April 17.—As Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler summoned the Reichstag to hear his full answer to President Roosevelt's peace appeal, Premier Benito Mussolini's inspired press predicted clearly today that unequivocal acceptance was out of the question.

Reflecting official resentment against the alleged "insolence" of the message, Virginio Gayda, writing in the Giornale D'Italia, accused Mr. Roosevelt of "insincerity" and of fostering an outbreak of European hostilities. Gayda is known as Il Duce's press mouthpiece.

"Italy cannot recognize," Gayda said, "that Roosevelt has any moral or political right to intervene in the European situation."

"In his message we may see a desire to achieve ephemeral immortality by creating fresh confusion in the world. It is a crazy attempt to create a new situation which will end by throwing his nation into a new adventure and thus distract American public opinion from internal troubles."

recently in which it was stated that the school board had decided to pay the school teachers monthly, instead of only during the nine months of the school term. This does not mean that the teachers receive any different amount of total pay for the year, merely that it will be paid in twelve installments instead of the nine as at present.

Although no record is being established, the fact remains that so far this month there have only been two out of the seventeen days in which some precipitation has not occurred. A total of three inches of rain and snow has fallen so far during the month.

Because of traffic being forced to travel through Croton avenue to reach the Slippery Rock highway, owing to a detour on Route 19, the city has authorized a request to the Public Utilities commission that the removal of street car rails in Croton avenue be postponed. Buses now are operating in Croton avenue.

Headed for the Worlds Fair in New York City, another carload of Shenango china started its trip from the local plant over the week end. This makes the second car load to go and a third will be on the rails soon. Each car contains approximately 4000 dozen ware which will be used in feeding the hungry millions that will visit the Fair. On the grounds are eighty nine restaurants which will be equipped with Shenango china.

demands of those who feel that the legislature face the tax situation squarely at the present session.

Tax litigation which is causing the administration uneasiness involves the tax on bank and loan company shares and on corporation loans, both awaiting decision by the Dauphin county court. Approximately $80,000 is involved.

Other Measures Up

At the same time a question has been raised as to the legality of that portion of the corporate net income tax which relates to out-of-state corporations. Semi-fiscal returns, due last Saturday, were accompanied by reports of a sharp falling off in revenue.

Controversy over the Hamilton-Tahli fireworks legislation in the house is expected to arise over attempts to amend the bill which bans fireworks except at public displays. A public hearing will be held soon on senate fireworks legislation. In the senate an attempt is expected to force out of committee the Shapiro-Woodward bill to permit a city manager form of government in Philadelphia.

Also arousing interest is the Woodward bill, up for passage in the senate, to set up a controller to act as the legislature's fiscal agent. If approved, the bill goes to the house for final action.

The house-approved Woodside deficiency bill for state departments, including $1,510,000 in school aid, is also up for final passage tonight. Of more immediate interest to distressed school districts, however, is the house-approved bill to appropriate $1,000,000 in emergency school aid. The school aid appropriation in the Woodside bill will not be available until June 1 while funds from the emergency appropriation are expected to be available within 10 days. Nearly 200 teachers in Northumberland and Schuylkill counties are now striking for back pay.

similar arrangement was expected to be made for New York City power companies also.

Cities Affected

Mayor LaGuardia asserted in his telegram to the president that in his experience in labor disputes he had never found a similar deadlock "where the two sides seem to be less apart." He also added the warning that all cities in the east will soon face the same crisis as does New York City.

Background note: When the previous contract expired in 1937, President Roosevelt kept the miners at work by persuading the union to make several temporary extensions of the pact until a new one was negotiated. This time the contract expired and the miners quit work without any presidential intervention.

As they emerge for lunch after a session lasting nearly two hours, the conferees greeted all queries with either silence or smiles.

Their only remark was: "We meet again at two p. m."

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, was absent from this morning's parley. He spent the week-end in Washington, but was expected to return to New York late today.

Work was completed today on the laying of a boom across the wide inlet of the North Sea, and other defenses, especially aimed against submarines, were perfected. The boom extends from Aberdeen to the south shore of Leith. Workmen labored night and day over the week-end to finish the task.

Praise Roosevelt Appeal

As the British press continued to heap praise on President Roosevelt's decade-of-peace appeal, Great Britain concentrated also on bringing the Soviet union into the network of nations pledged to fight for countries whose independence is threatened by Fascist aggression.

Chancellor Hitler, according to the Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent, is contemplating a bold counter-stroke to offset the Anglo-French plan for a pact with the Soviets, by seeking a Russo-German agreement for Russian neutrality in any German-Polish dispute.

Parallels Stand By Italy

BERLIN, April 17.—That Italy will take a parallel stand with Germany in turning down President Roosevelt's suggestion for a ten-year guarantee of non aggression was indicated today in semi-official advices from Rome.

Political circles in Rome, according to DNB, the German news agency, fully support the Reich's anticipated rejection of the Roosevelt message, holding that the Washington note merely constitutes a maneuver to brand Germany and Italy as disturbers of the peace.

"No" is still Germany's answer to the Roosevelt appeal.

ed States for the erection of what is looked upon here as a common democratic front against the axis.

To Attack Soviet Inclusion

A big part of the speech will be devoted to the contention that, through their dealings with the Soviets, the western powers are lining themselves up with "destructive Bolshevism."

Indications are that Hitler also will seize the opportunity to answer in general the so-called "encirclement" powers, reviewing the whole critical European situation and possibly making known his attitude towards the Polish and other acute questions.

The Nazi press in the meantime maintained its incessant onslaught against the president. Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels' paper, Der Angriff, led the attack with another questionnaire addressed to the American people, under the headline: "Wilson in 1918—Roosevelt in 1939." The paper inquired:

Similar To Wilson

"Do the American people realize that the present methods of incitement are embarrassingly similar to Wilson's procedure in 1918—from which ill-fated policy America has dissociated herself after the end of the war, because she had to suffer severely herself from the policy's consequences?"

"Will the American people realize that Roosevelt's step does not serve the cause of peace, but that it merely serves the purpose of dragging the world away from peace, in that Roosevelt wants to prepare the way for alteration of the Neutrality Act?"

"Do the American people realize that Roosevelt has lined himself up openly with Bolshevism—that is, with the forces which are expanding in America as well as other countries for revolution, destruction and expropriation?"

Angriff concluded with the declaration that if Mr. Roosevelt succeeds in changing the Neutrality Act, "we hope that the American people will reject Roosevelt's catastrophe policy the same as they did Wilson's."

MOORE-GIBSON WEDDING TAKES PLACE SATURDAY

A lovely wedding of the early spring was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Christian and Missionary Alliance church of Castlewood, when Dorothy Louise Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Moore of that vicinity, became the bride of DuWayne Scott Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson of Gardner.

The Rev. J. R. Turner, pastor, officiated with the single ring service being used. The vows were exchanged in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives of the couple, and the church altar was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Palms, ferns and spring flowers were used, providing a colorful background.

Following the ceremony, Miss Sadie Lee of New Castle as soloist, sang, "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Braden Bookamer, accompanist.

Given in marriage by her father, Lloyd Moore, the bride was attired in a gown of poudre blue lace with navy accessories. Her flowers were of yellow roses and sweet peas. Miss Dorothy Gibson, sister of the groom, as her only attendant, wore a dusty rose lace gown with blue accompaniments. Her corsage was made up of red roses and sweet peas.

Elmer Gorman of New Castle, was best man.

Following a short congratulatory period, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. Places marked for twenty-two. The couple left afterwards on a trip.

Both the bride and groom graduated from Shenango high. She has been associated in the offices of the Bell Telephone company of this city and he is employed at the Johnson Bronze company.

After April 24, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will be "at home" to their host of friends in their newly furnished apartment at 905 Franklin avenue, New Castle.

FIELD CLUB ANNUAL DANCE HELD SATURDAY

New Castle Field Club members, enjoyed their annual Easter dance on Saturday evening, at the club house, which attracted upwards of a hundred participants.

Dancing was in vogue with a newly organized local orchestra providing the dance melodies. The program began at 10 o'clock.

A number of guests from out of town also shared in the formal event.

MILDRED CRABILL IS WEEK-END BRIDE

Featuring the week end on the social calendar was the marriage of Miss Mildred Crabill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison Crabill, of 129 Matilda avenue, and Chester Biddle, son of John Biddle of 40 North Mill street.

Rev. Thomas B. Shearer read the services in the parsonage of the Central Christian church before an improvised altar, emanked with lovely ferns and spring flowers. The single ring ceremony was used.

Matching brown accompaniments and a shoulder corsage of tea roses and lilies of the valley completed the bride's ensemble of a brown tailored suit. Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stanley Crabill.

Stanley Crabill served the groom as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crabill were hosts at a small reception following the service at their home. Aides in serving were Mrs. Clyde Stevens and Hilda Gilliam.

The couple have taken up residence at 40 North Mill street. The bride has been affiliated with the Sturdy and Taylor Cleaning Company and the groom is employed at the Shenango Tin Mill.

SHENANGO LEAGUE PARTY AT CASTLETON

Winding up a successful 1938-39 bowling season, the Shenango Bowling League enjoyed a banquet in the Castleton Friday evening, which topped anything on the social calendar they have undertaken.

The occasion was attended by sixty-five guests, and during intervals throughout the evening, pep singing was led by Jack Hope, who also presided in a most capable manner, as master of ceremonies. He called upon Raymond McBride of Clairton, assistant superintendent Harry Gravenstretter and Lloyd Rowles, the latter the champion bowler of the season who received an appropriate gift.

Climaxing the entertainment, in charge of George Shockley, a snappy floor show was presented, including speciality dancing, Hawaiian and accordion musical selections, by talented artists.

General arrangements were in the hands of G. E. McBride.

Election of officers for the new season, resulted as follows: president, George Shackle; treasurer, Sam Rice; secretary, Robert Brest. John Loudon is the retired president.

Special guests of the occasion, were R. H. McBride, John H. Elliott, Harry W. Kerr, John H. Hope and C. E. Dennis.

CONNOR-DONEGAN WEDDING IN CHURCH

Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Frances Jane Connor, daughter of Mrs. Wilbur Parshall of the Harlanburg road, and John Joseph Donegan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Donegan of East Leisure avenue, were united in marriage at an impressive ceremony in St. Joseph's church.

The vows were exchanged before a beautifully emanked altar, palms and Easter flowers being artistically arranged, and set off in the glow of lighted candles. Rev. Fr. Peter M. Schirra officiated with nuptial high mass being celebrated. Throughout the ceremony the vested boys' choir chanted appropriate numbers, with Miss Clara Duff, organist.

The bride was attired in a beige suit with japonica accessories, and a shoulder corsage of orchids, and pleted her ensemble. Mr. Paul Duff, her aunt, as matron of honor, wore a navy suit with Puchia accompaniments. Her shoulder bouquet of roses harmonized.

Kenneth Donegan served his brother as best man.

A wedding breakfast at a prominent tea room for the bridal party supplemented the ceremony, and later, the couple departed on a few days trip. Upon their return this week they will be at home to friends in their newly furnished apartment, 219 East Wallace avenue.

Both are graduates of the New Castle high school. She has been connected with the Nobil shoe store here, and he is associated with the Max Ludwig company.

matter of appropriations, which makes the present reversal of positions the more striking. No one expects Congress, without Presidential pressure, to make any really great cuts. Obviously there are two things which must be done if we are to get back even to the seven-billion-dollar budget of 1938, and Congress can do neither alone.

ONE is a reorganization of the governmental departments by which the countless useless and expensive agencies created by the New Deal will be abolished. It is estimated that at least $200,000,000 a year can thus be saved, but no move to do that will be made by Mr. Roosevelt. On the contrary, he is soon to appoint six additional and unnecessary secretaries at $10,000 each and wants to create a new $10,000 Under Secretary for the Commerce Department. The other thing is a revamping of the whole WPA situation by which the administration of relief will be put back into the hands of the States, where it can be done for one-half the cost and with doubled efficiency.

MR. ROOSEVELT is immovably against both these things. Clearly Congress is helpless by itself. Just as clearly, no great economy can be made in other directions. All of which means that the most can be hoped for until after the next election is that the expenditures will be held at approximately the present levels. That's the best Congress can do, but considering the attitude of the President, that is a great deal.

According to certain observation, most cigarette smokers throw away cigarettes when they are about one and one-fourth inch long.

Officials To Consider Eight Proposed Laws

One Proposed Measure Concerns Wages of City Police Officers

PENSION MEASURE TO BE CONSIDERED

Officials from third-class cities, including Mayor Charles E. McGrath and Councilman Joseph D. Alexander of this city, will attend the conference of mayors Monday night. Also a hearing by a Senate committee, of which George B. Stevenson (Republican of Clinton county) is chairman, Tuesday, in the state capital. The conference and hearing concerns third-class city laws.

There are probably two-score bills pending. Only six have been reported from committees, of which four have cleared the House and one awaits final action in the House tonight. None has emerged from the Senate municipal committee. Eight will be considered by the officials of the third-class cities when the conference is held tonight and Tuesday.

Most controversial of the eight probably is the House-approved pension bill fixing minimum annual salaries of police patrolmen at $1,600 and making mandatory also six annual increases of $80 to a maximum of $2,080. Sponsored by Representative David P. Reese (R., Dauphin) it was vigorously opposed by the House home-rule bloc, but passed by a vote of 126 to 36 votes.

Other third-class city bills in the Stevenson committee and listed for discussion at the Tuesday hearing could:

- 1—Establish a method of annexation for boroughs. Senator Louis H. Farrell (R., Philadelphia).
- 2—Enable adoption of the city manager plan of government by referendum. Senator J. Albert Reed (D., Washington).
- 3—Require state to bear cost of construction, reconstruction and maintenance of bridges on state highways within third-class cities. Senator Anthony Cavalcante (D., Fayette).
- 4—Make establishment of pension funds for city employees other than police and firemen mandatory. (Senator Samuel L. Gilson D., Erie).
- 5—Authorize appeals from reports of viewers, demand trial by jury and make provisions retroactive to include pending cases. Representative John W. Montgomery (R., Allegheny). It cleared the House 203 to 0, March 27.
- 6—Provide for adoption of standard building codes and dispense with their publication in full. Representatives Warren K. Hess and Albert S. Readinger (Berk Democrats).

The House will give preliminary consideration to the Boose bill amending the 1937 third-class city permanent registration law to eliminate the requirement that privately and municipally owned public utilities report monthly to the registration commission names and addresses of persons contracting for or discontinuing service.

Representative Ellis C. Boose (R., Somerset), sponsored the bills.

Bills proposing changes and additions to third-class city laws, pending in the House third-class cities committee headed by Representative Raymond C. Webster (R., Chester) include those to:

- Establish a uniform fiscal year; prohibit parking meters; allow justices of the peace to act as registrars of voters; permit voters moving to another part of the city or the same county to change registration without personal appearance; promote uniformity of taxation; permit installment payment of taxes.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1939 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Those who think youth should live daringly, with a bold and imaginative approach to the problems of its generation, will be gratified by recent bulletins from the big colleges. In the field of extra-curricular activities, they have progressed from such pedestrian endeavors as putting a cow in a classroom to an inspired competition in eating raw goldfish.

There's a challenge of the times, bravely met! The record, as we go to press, seems to be held by Gordon Southworth of Middlesex University, who ate 67 goldfish. But Patrick, of the University of Chicago, broke two records—that, is they were photograph records. He mounted the barricades and ate them both. That's one way of grabbing and holding a title. Entrants so far in the tournament are Chicago, Harvard, Franklin and Marshall, Pennsylvania, Boston College, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Middlesex University, with others coming in almost daily.

The goldfish don't gag the students but they touch off a lot of rags. On the serious side, Dr. Edwin Ziegler, Boston pathologist, warns the voracious youngsters that they are in danger of anaemia and tapeworms. Obviously, in these hard times, many of these lads won't be in a position to support a tapeworm in the style to which it has been accustomed. Possible in the interest of the national internal economy, the Massachusetts legislature is starting an inquiry. Is youth restless, bewildered and disheartened in its economic lean-end? Let 'em eat goldfish!

The females of the species are frequently more deadly in earnest than the male. Quite as indigestible as a raw goldfish, even if they should dip it in catsup, is the elaborate program of governmental and social studies undertaken by the Bennington College girls.

They are ingesting wages and hours, money and interest, "Relief and Voting in New Jersey," the Wagner Act, city management, agricultural balance and stabilization, social attitudes, costs and standards of living, and much more of the like, without so much as a canape or a chaser to go with it.

I gather from educators that there's much less pranks and much more hard work in women's colleges than in men's. A current magazine article on undergraduate hazing and gagging finds the "Campus Outcups" entirely in the men's colleges. There are revealed many better inspirations than goldfish eating, among them the famous telegram of some years ago inviting Vice-President Curtis and other Republican notables to a dinner honoring Hugo N. Frye, founder of the Republican party in those parts—with cordial and trusting responses from the notables.

The real age—the mental maturity—of any woman is supposed to be at least four years more than that of a man of the same chronological age. It may be that this lead in life impels them through rowdy adolescence faster than men and inspires them to "put away childish things" sooner than men. At any rate, it has been a swarm of serious young women, emerging from the colleges, from the days of Jane Addams on, who have created social settlements, and the expanding social welfare movement, culminating in the first social welfare administration in the history of the country.

Not wishing to be too owlish about all this—the goldfish eating will be soon forgotten—it appears to this onlooker that even such far-fetched attention-getting might be a sign of health and well-being in our colleges. European university students have traditionally swallowed the hard mule of Nietzschean, Bernhartian or Marxian doctrine, instead of goldfish; and in spite of their admittedly more thorough scholarship, it does not appear that they have greatly nurtured or illumined the continental mass mind—taking it as it is today.

Probably nobody needs to worry but the goldfish. When youngsters start kicking up their heels, they are no doubt freer from the lash of fear, less bewildered and faltering than in books. This is not to take too lightly the generally accepted notion that the business of education is to educate. It is merely to assume that the vernal urge toward foolishness is more observable in good times than bad.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

It's the little things that count, even with babies. The draw-string in his shirt is too tight.

There is a lump in the crib mattress.

His diaper is pinned too tightly.

There's a fly buzzing about his face.

That bright light keeps him awake and restless.

Those slamming doors are most irritating.

That rubber sheet is under his head and he's gasping.

People yank him up by his armpits and are they sore?

He is on his side and one of his ears is turned under.

Why can't they make him comfortable?

Those little things are most annoying.

Meals for Japanese soldiers cost approximately nine cents per meal. They consist of rice and fish.

MEN LOVE GIRLS WITH PEP

If you are peppy and full of fun, men will love you to dance and parties.

BUT if you are cross, listless and tired men won't be interested. Men don't like "quiet" girls. When they go to parties they want girls along who are full of pep.

So in case you need a good general system tonic, remember for 3 generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling thru" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps build up more physical pep and lessens distress from female functional disorders.

You find Pinkham's Compound WELL WORTH TRYING!

BOY SCOUTS TO SEE NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR

Special Troop Will Be Worked Up To Camp On Grounds Of Big Fair

Lawrence County Boy Scout office today announced that a special troop of Boy Scouts will be worked up to attend the big New York World's Fair, this summer.

This plan was approved by the camping committee of the local council, at a recent meeting.

This special troop will include 32 boys, a senior patrol leader, two assistant patrol leaders, and a Scoutmaster. The troop will be encamped right on the fair grounds, in the official World's Fair Boy Scout Encampment.

From all indications, this is one of the finest opportunities offered to Boy Scouts. Each boy, who is selected to join the troop, will be required to pay but $27 for expenses. This fee will cover the railroad fare, food and from the fair, and all expenses while in New York.

The Scouts will camp on the fair grounds, and they will be supplied with all needed camping equipment, meals and entertainment, for the period of one week in New York.

According to information at the local office, this special troop is open to all Scouts who have been in the organization since May 1938.

Although no date for the local troop to attend the fair has been selected, it was suggested that the trip come immediately following the Camp John M. Phillips season, which ends on August 5.

Complete information regarding the trip may be secured at the local Scout office in the Greer building.

Fire-Proof Plaster Latest Invention

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 17.—Mellon Institute research workers have developed a fire-proof plaster which, it is expected, will safeguard steel units which buckle when exposed to prolonged and intense heat, it was announced here.

The new light-weight protective covering consists primarily of gypsum, commonly used in plaster parts, plus vermiculite, a silicate-heat-insulating mineral. Heretofore steel girders, beams and sheet metal flooring have been protected against the possibility of fire by heavy masonry or tile.

It was expected that the fire-proof plaster will be particularly useful in skyscrapers. The substance has been given an official fire resistance rating of five hours and 44 minutes by the National Bureau of Standards.

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

Copyright 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

DR. DAFOE DESCRIBES SCOURGE OF "BLACK" DIPHTHERIA

There is one infectious disease which you hear very little about today, but the very name of it at one time filled us with dread. I refer to diphtheria.

In my own time I have seen this disease so beaten by science that I haven't seen a case of it for four or five years. Before it was controlled I have known it to take whole families. I myself have seen more than 200 children die of this terrible scourge. I have seen poor little creatures running around the room, gasping for breath, pleading with father and mother to help them.

It is my earnest belief that the discovery of the diphtheria antitoxin was one of the greatest discoveries of modern science.

It is funny how quickly people forget what a scourge it was, or how recently we have been able to do anything about it. I remember my father, who was a pioneer physician here in Ontario, when he used to say he dreaded diphtheria more than any other disease. I have one of his old text books in my library and when I look at it I can understand why diphtheria was such a nightmare.

The book was published in 1873, and as recently as that they didn't have the slightest idea what diphtheria was or what caused it. Some thought it was caused by bad air, or the gases from swamps.

Strangest of all, they never thought of people dying of the disease itself. In their opinion, when a victim died, it wasn't from the poison of the disease, it was just because his strength had given out.

In those days there wasn't any such thing as a general treatment; there was no specific remedy. All they did was burn out the patient's throat with hydrochloric acid or nitrate of silver, and try to keep up strength with food until the fury of the disease ended.

When I say that epidemics would wipe out whole families I mean just that—and big families too. When I first started practice, I was in a mining section of northern Ontario. One night I received a call that meant a twenty-mile drive by horse and sleigh over a bush road, but I went.

When I got there, I found that out of a family of twelve children, three were already dead, and two more were choking to death. In those days antitoxin was hard to get. I had to drive back the twenty miles and wire for it. When I got back to the home with the antitoxin, only six children were left alive. I toxoided all those, and every one of them lived.

This very virulent type of the disease was always called "black" diphtheria. When you saw a child with this affliction, you gave up hope, for death came in about 48 hours. The modern doctor never sees this manifestation. In fact, he shouldn't see any diphtheria at all, for modern science has given us the weapon to stamp out the disease.

Floral Festivals Will Attract Many

Pennsylvania Highways Will Carry Many Motorists
To Celebrations

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—More motorists than ever will be attracted this year to the highways and byways of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware for blossom festivals in various sections of the east, according to the Keystone Automobile Club.

Inquiries at its offices here this year have indicated increased interest in the celebrations held in a number of nearby areas, club officials said. They described the demand for "blossom date" information as unprecedented.

Several flower festivals will be held in Virginia in April, chief among them being the 12th annual Shenandoah Valley Apple Blossom Festival, at Winchester, the club's calendar shows.

Other dates and places include: April 15-May 15, Longwood Gardens Floral Display, Wilmington, Del.; April 24-29, Virginia Garden Week; April 15-20, Peach Blossoms, Bridgeton, N. One of New Castle's best known and hardest working Girl Scouts, Miss Donna Jean Beall, of 213 Fairfield avenue, has been accepted by the National Girl Scout Council for a special training course.

Tornadoes Sweep Through Four States Over Week-End

Report 35 To 40 Lives Are Lost

Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas
And Oklahoma In Path
Of Storms

ARKANSAS TOWN
REPORTED LEVELLED

(International News Service)
SHREVEPORT, La., April 17.—From 35 to 45 persons were reported today to have lost their lives in tornadoes that tore through Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma late Saturday and Sunday, and one Arkansas town was believed to have been wiped out. Between 100 and 125 others were feared to have been injured.

According to available information, the town of Center Point in Eastern Kansas was completely destroyed by a twister last night that killed 16 persons, left at least half a dozen others missing and injured almost every one in the town. One report was that nothing was left of Center Point but "a hole in the ground."

Eight persons were believed to have been killed and about 40 others injured by a tornado that whirled through Haynesville in Northwest Louisiana.

Four persons were killed by freak winds in Texas, three dying at Pipe Creek, near San Antonio, which was hit late Saturday.

In Oklahoma, a total of seven persons were said to have been killed.

Throughout the tornado-damaged area, scores of persons were made homeless as the terrific winds blew down homes, barns, filling stations and other small structures. More than $1,000,000 worth of property was thought to have been destroyed.

Early today hospitals in stricken areas rushed doctors and nurses to damaged towns, while everywhere rescuers sifted through wreckage for additional victims. National Guardsmen and CCC workers helped out in many sections.

Interrupted communications prevented full word of the storm area's plight being sent out at once.

Girl, Two Men Are Injured In Car-Bus Crash

Auto From Sideroad Hits Big
Bus Carry 18 Persons
Near Sandy Lake

SANDY LAKE, Pa., April 17.—Speeding out upon the main Sandy Lake-Grove City highway from a side road, two miles south of here, Sunday afternoon, an automobile containing four young persons was sent whirling into the ditch when it collided with a Harmony Short Line bus, and three of the injured are in critical condition.

Edna Charles (Bing) Shouey, driver of the Pittsburgh-Oil City bus, north-bound, said the car appeared without warning, at rate of speed. It was in front of his bus before he could avert an accident, he said.

Failure of the driver of the sedan to observe the stop sign on the side road, caused the accident, it was averred.

The injured, taken to Mercer hospital, are: Vergil McCune and Ruby House, both of Mercer, and Howard McDowell, Hamburg, Pa.

Mercedes McCune, sister of Vergil, was not injured. McDowell was driving the lighter car.

The northbound Harmony bus, driven by Shouey, carried 18 passengers, none of whom was injured.

The bus later was able to proceed under its own power to Sandy Lake. The backdrop road intersecting the highway at Perrine's Corners, where the crash occurred, is a recognized short-cut to Grove City.

LONDON SENDS REGRET
OVER DEATH OF NURSE

WEST MIDDLESEX, Pa., July 17.—Alfred M. London, former governor of Kansas and Republican candidate for president in 1936, sent a telegram of condolence to West Middlesex people after he had learned of the death of his first nurse, Mrs. Mary (Aunt Molly) Baird. Mrs. Baird, aged 88, died last night following an illness of one year.

"I am grieved to learn of Mrs. Baird's death. She was a woman of high character and West Middlesex will miss her," the telegram read.

Mrs. Baird attended Mrs. London when Alf was born here more than 55 years ago. She occupied a seat of honor when Candidate London came to West Middlesex for a big political rally in the fall of 1936.

A pistol was invented recently by a Frenchman that knocks its victim out with a powerful blast of compressed air.

Pending Relief Reform Bill Would Place More Of Project Costs Locally

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17.—The relief reform bill approved by the senate's special unemployment committee would greatly increase state and local contributions to WPA projects in Pennsylvania.

Senate Democratic Leader Barkley has promised early senate consideration of the measure, known as the Byrnes bill.

The bill places all general and work relief under a new Public Works Agency. It eliminates the WPA and PWA. It eliminates projects financed entirely by federal funds and sets up instead a formula under which state and local sponsors contribute one-third and the federal government contributes two-thirds of work relief costs.

Under the WPA as it has been operating, Pennsylvania sponsors have been advancing much less than one-third of project costs. Total costs of WPA projects undertaken in the Keystone state through last November 30 were $628,514,360. State and local sponsors contributed only 10.1 per cent, or $63,456,283 of this.

Had the Byrnes bill been in operation, state and municipalities would have been called upon to contribute $209,295,284 instead of the $63,456,283 actually advanced.

It is generally believed in government circles here that the bar against more projects completely financed by federal money would virtually eliminate such white collar projects as the now existing music, theatre, and writers' projects. Hereafter cities and states would be required to pay one-third of the costs of these projects, and it is feared most cities would be unwilling or unable to make such outlays.

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 17.—From the statehouse at Albany, New York's capital, comes this report from a news correspondent: "One argument for the sales tax being used in the effort to drum into line its senatorial opponents is that, if New York state adopts such a tax, the bordering states, particularly Pennsylvania, will follow suit next year and the merchants in the border counties will face continued loss of trade."

The Albany correspondent continued: "Reports current here are that assurances on this question come from high Pennsylvania officials. The Republican leadership of the legislature, however, has indicated that it has no official knowledge of such assurances."

New York is apparently facing the same fiscal difficulties as Pennsylvania and the question uppermost there is whether to reduce state expenditures or increase taxes as Gov. Herbert H. Lehman has recommended.

One of the proposals being advanced in Albany is that state aid to schools should be cut, perhaps as high as $10,000,000, bringing the total down to $116,000,000. . . . A pay slash for higher-salaried state officers and employees is also being recommended. . . . Both houses of the New York state legislature are Republican-controlled but the governor is Democratic.

The advent of spring again brings

About 150 Welsh-Americans and music loving friends from this city attended the Gymanfa Ganu (Welsh singing festival) held in the Presbyterian church of Aliquippa on Sunday afternoon and evening. Fifty-four of the above number travelled there in two chartered buses, a number of whom are quite hoarse today as a result of having sung so lustily enroute and at the festival.

Many of the special choir were enlisted from singers from New Castle.

There were visitors from Pittsburgh, Sharon, Youngstown, Cantonburg and other places, besides this city, and there were many reunions of friends, some of whom had not met for many years.

New Type Of Play To Be Presented By Senior Class

"Ceiling Zero", Story Of Pioneer Fliers, To Be Given Thursday, Friday

ELLWOOD CITY, April 17—Modern airlines could never have been established without the experiences and the deaths of the brave and reckless fliers who won their wings in the World War and on Thursday and Friday evening when the Senior Class of Lincoln high school presents the annual spring play the plot will center about the beginning of aviation, pilots and death.

Entirely different from any class play ever given here, "Ceiling Zero" by Lieutenant Commander Frank Weed of the U. S. Navy Aviation Corps, who writes from personal knowledge of the pioneers who blazed the trail of the skyways, will feature realistic sound effects of roaring motors, crashes, sirens, field-to-plane radio telephones, etc. For the presentation, the Lincoln high school has a real theater workshop. The stage setting representing the operation office of Federal Air Lines has been built and the sound effects arranged by a crew of high school boys under the direction of Harold Caplan.

The stage play opened on Broadway in 1935 and ran for several months during which time Mary Rogers was playing the leading girl's role when her father, the great Will Rogers, was killed in a plane crash.

Miss Elizabeth McKnight, who has had many successes in the past, is directing the play and the public should encourage the school to try experiments like this in exercising ingenuity by attending the presentation either Thursday or Friday night.

Because there are only four roles for girls in the play and 18 boys, one cast of girls will play on Thursday night and another on Friday night.

A matinee will be given on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock for pupils up to and including the ninth grade.

A Proclamation

The freedom and the independence enjoyed by us as members of a great Democracy can be maintained and perpetuated only by an enlightened citizenry and the education and the training for civic responsibility should begin with our young folks.

The Boy and Girl Scout organizations are generally recognized in this country as having the best training program for our youth and it should be the earnest desire of each and every one of us to foster and promote these scout movements.

We here in Ellwood City have just reason to be proud of our scouts and scouters and we should deem it an honor to be allowed to participate in the activities of these groups.

This week, the local scout organizations are conducting a campaign for funds on their work during the year.

Now therefore, I, William McGlincey, burgess of Ellwood City, do hereby endorse this campaign of the Boy and Girl Scouts and the citizens of our neighboring communities to contribute as generously as possible to this fund.

WILLIAM MCGLINCEY, Burgess.

Buying Power Here Above Average In United States

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, April 17.—More money was available to the average family in New Castle last year for spending, after paying its rent and food bills, than was the case generally in other sections of the country, according to Sales Management's tenth annual survey of buying power.

The figures show that the local family had an effective buying income—a figure that takes into account the cost of living—of $2,266. The average American family had $2,116. For the Middle Atlantic states, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, however, the figure was slightly higher, $2,262. For Pennsylvania it was $2,207 per family.

Per individual, there was $545 to spend in New Castle after the rent and food was paid for. The average was $492 for the rest of the country.

In New Castle the sales volume was high in 1938. Although the city has only .50 per cent of the state's population, its sales were 61 per cent of the state total.

The living standard index in the city is comparatively high. Income tax returns were made by 56 out of every 1,000 residents, while for the rest of the nation only 23 per 1,000 made returns. Car registrations were 888 per 1,000 families in the county and 787 per 1,000 families for the country.

Governor May Have State Fiscal Plan

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 17.—Whether or not Gov. Arthur H. James has something up his sleeve which will permit a solution of the fiscal situation without imposing new taxes, either now or at a special session, is intriguing Capitol observers.

Governor James expressed the hope that a way out of the commonwealth's financial difficulties might be found "without doing anything unusual."

The narrow margin of victory—4 votes—given the governor's legislation to set up a department of commerce in house Republican caucus was just another indication of the rumpus being raised in political G. O. P. circles over patronage, or, as some legislators and political leaders term it, the lack of patronage.

In the senate the same situation prevails, as witness the inability to date of the G. O. P. leadership in the senate to pass the general state authority and P. U. C. legislation.

One would remove three Democrats from the authority board and the other would authorize the governor to dismiss P. U. C. commissioners for "political activity."

In addition, it would permit the confirmation of John Siggins, Warren, to the P. U. C.

Indicative of the situation which exists in certain counties, especially those where the county chairman was a supporter of Governor James primary opponent, former governor Gifford Pinchot, is that existing in Lancaster county.

Graybill Diehm, Lancaster county chairman, complained that although the patronage committee there was made up of himself and C. Morris Hershey, an original James man, he received little patronage, most of it going to original James adherents.

Diehm, aroused over the situation, then played his "ace in the hole."

He summoned Senators Frederick I. Homsher and Henry J. Pierson, both of whom represent Lancaster county, to a conference with the governor at which James F. Torrance, G. O. P. state chairman, was present.

When the conference ended it was revealed that henceforth all patronage approval applications must be signed jointly by Diehm and Hershey.

Without support in the senate of Senators Homsher and Pierson, the G. O. P. might lose control to the Democrats.

Judge Howard Hughes, president judge of the Washington county court of common pleas, whom the state supreme court has designated as trial judge by Democratic officials and party members indicted by the Dauphin County Grand Jury, made a good impression on newsmen at his first press conference.

Judge Paul N. Schaeffer, president judge of Berks county, will continue to preside over the grand jury probe.

EGG PRICES VARY DURING MARCH

HARRISBURG, April 17.—Egg markets during March have been somewhat varied though mostly steady. Fractional price changes up and down have occurred, but at the close of the month prices were slightly higher than in late February. Egg production in flocks of Pennsylvania crop reporters on March 1 averaged 494 eggs per hundred layers which is an increase of 11 eggs over February 1 this year and nearly the same rate as March 1 last year. The average number of layers in farm flocks for Pennsylvania was around 7 percent greater during March this year compared to March last year.

NEW KIND OF TIRE SWEEPS WET ROADS SO DRY YOU CAN LIGHT A MATCH ON ITS TRACK!

LIFE-SAVER TREAD ACTS LIKE A BATTERY OF WINDSHIELD WIPERS

Read How This Road-Drying Sensation Gives You Quickest Non-Skid Stops On The Road!

SENSATIONAL? You bet! For here at last is a tire that automatically sweeps wet roads dry—so dry, in fact, that after a quick stop you can actually light matches on its track—convincing proof that the new Goodrich Safety Silvertown will give you the quickest non-skid stops you've ever had!

And here's the secret of this tire's amazing road-drying ability: As the never-ending spiral bars of the Life-Saver Tread roll over a dangerous film of water, they act like a rapid-fire battery of windshield wipers—sweep, the water right and left—force it out through the deep drainage grooves—make a DRY TRACK for the rubber to grip. The very first time you've experienced a SILVERTOWN STOP on a wet slippery pavement you'll realize that you have found a new kind of protection.

NO EXTRA COST!

And whether roads are wet or dry, Silvertowns AT ALL TIMES give you that other great life-saving protection—the famous Golden Ply. By resisting internal tire heat, this exclusive Golden Ply invention provides you with scientific protection against dangerous high-speed blow-outs.

But remember, to protect yourself against a possible skid or blow-out tomorrow, you must act today. For safety's sake come in and have your car equipped with streamlined Goodrich Safety Silvertowns. There is no extra cost!

BEST LAST YEAR—BEST THIS YEAR!

In two series of non-skid tests the regular and premium-priced tires of America's six largest tire manufacturers, including new tires which have just been introduced, were tested by the famous independent Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory. Here's their report:

"The new Goodrich Silvertown with the Life-Saver Tread gave greater skid resistance than any other tire tested, including not only the old established tires of these manufacturers—some listed at 40% to 70% higher in price—but also the new tires which were recently tested under the same road conditions."

Joan Bennett Gets Role Ideal For Hedy La Marr

By MILTON HARKER

(International News Service)
(Copyright, 1939)

HOLLYWOOD, April 17.—It looks like a bit of Hollywood irony, for to Joan Bennett falls the role which would have been meat and gravy for Hedy La Marr. It's the lead in "The Housekeeper's Daughter," which will show the effect of one girl on a whole string of men.

Hal Roach is now busy trying to round up the largest cast of leading men Hollywood has seen in many a day. Roach hopes to get the picture started May 15, when Joan will have completed "The Man In The Iron Mask" for Edward Small.

No picture will be made in 1939 which gives a woman more opportunity to show her allure than this one. It's the kind of a picture M-G-M has been wanting for Hedy ever since she made "Algiers" and now the fates decree that Joan, who looks so much like the Viennese beauty and the former wife of her husband Gene Markey, should play the role.

There's a good story behind the assignment of Blonde and beautiful Helen Gilbert, 22, to play the love interest to Mickey Rooney in M-G-M's "Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever."

For the past two years Miss Gilbert has been a cellist in the studio's symphony orchestra. A year ago while scores were being made for "Marie Antoinette" Director W. S. Van Dyke happened to notice her.

"If you'd like to be on the screen, go to the office and tell them to make a test of you," Van Dyke told her.

Van Dyke assured her he wasn't joking and then promptly forgot the incident.

For the past two weeks the studio has been trying to decide who should get Mickey's puppy love proposal of marriage. Friday the casting office told Van Dyke it had a test of a new girl the experts thought "would be marvelous in the role."

Van Dyke went up to take a look. There on the screen was Miss Gilbert.

So she goes to work for her "Discoverer" in her first picture.

FELT LIKE HEAD WAS SPINNING AROUND TILL HE TOOK VENDOR

Well known farmer had bilious spells, spots danced before eyes, tongue coated, until Vendor relieved constipation. Feels grand now.

"Sometimes my head seemed to be spinning around like a top and I'd feel like holding on to something to steady myself until the feeling passed over," said Mr. Miles W. Lee of West Farmington, Ohio, near Athens, to the Vendor Man now at Eckerd's Cut Rate Drug; he was describing how this great Root, Herb and Alkaline medicine gave such marvelous relief.

"I was troubled with constipation, which was at the bottom of my ailments. Many mornings I'd awaken with a headache, feeling drowsy, tired, and achy, as though I hadn't had any rest all night. My tongue was coated and my skin had a dull, sallow look.

"My nerves were so unstrung that any sudden noise made me jump and just felt the need of a good stimulating tonic.

"But I'm thankful to say that Vendor has changed all this and now I'm feeling like myself again. Vendor and the little Vendor laxative tablets gave splendid relief from my constipation, then my other troubles just grew less and less till they passed off. Now I sleep well, get up with no sign of dizziness or headache, and I enjoy a healthy appetite which makes me feel strong and full of energy.

"I can certainly recommend Vendor to everyone who wants a good medicine for the same troubles as mine."

Don't delay giving this great Root, Herb and Alkaline medicine a chance to help you too. The Vendor Man is daily at Eckerd's Cut Rate Drug, and invites you to visit him and learn all about it. So come see him today—there is no charge. You can get Vendor at leading drug stores everywhere.

The clubs in the loop last year and which will be in the loop are: Bessemer, league champions, managers, Webb Stanley and Paul Nord. Wampum, Manager Jim Butchell. South Hills, Manager Joe Augustino. Hillsville, Manager "Chuck" Riley. Judging from the interest displayed at the April 12 meeting, the loop this season should have a highly successful season.

It was also planned to present a 1939 championship trophy Wednesday night to Bessemer for having captured the league pennant. Secretary James Martin of the league has prepared to keep averages of players through the season which will be printed at various times.

Expect 30,000 At Cincinnati Opener

Rain Threatens To Postpone First Game Of Year, Pirates Vs. Reds

(International News Service)
CINCINNATI, O., April 17.—Approximately 30,000 baseball fans who held tickets scanned leaden skies today as predictions of more rain threatened to mar the opening National League baseball game between the Cincinnati Reds and the Pittsburgh Pirates here.

The Cincinnati tilt was the first scheduled in the National League. The other six clubs were to start tomorrow. If the rain lets up at all, club officials predicted there would be a game because Crosley field has been protected by a canvas during the past few days.

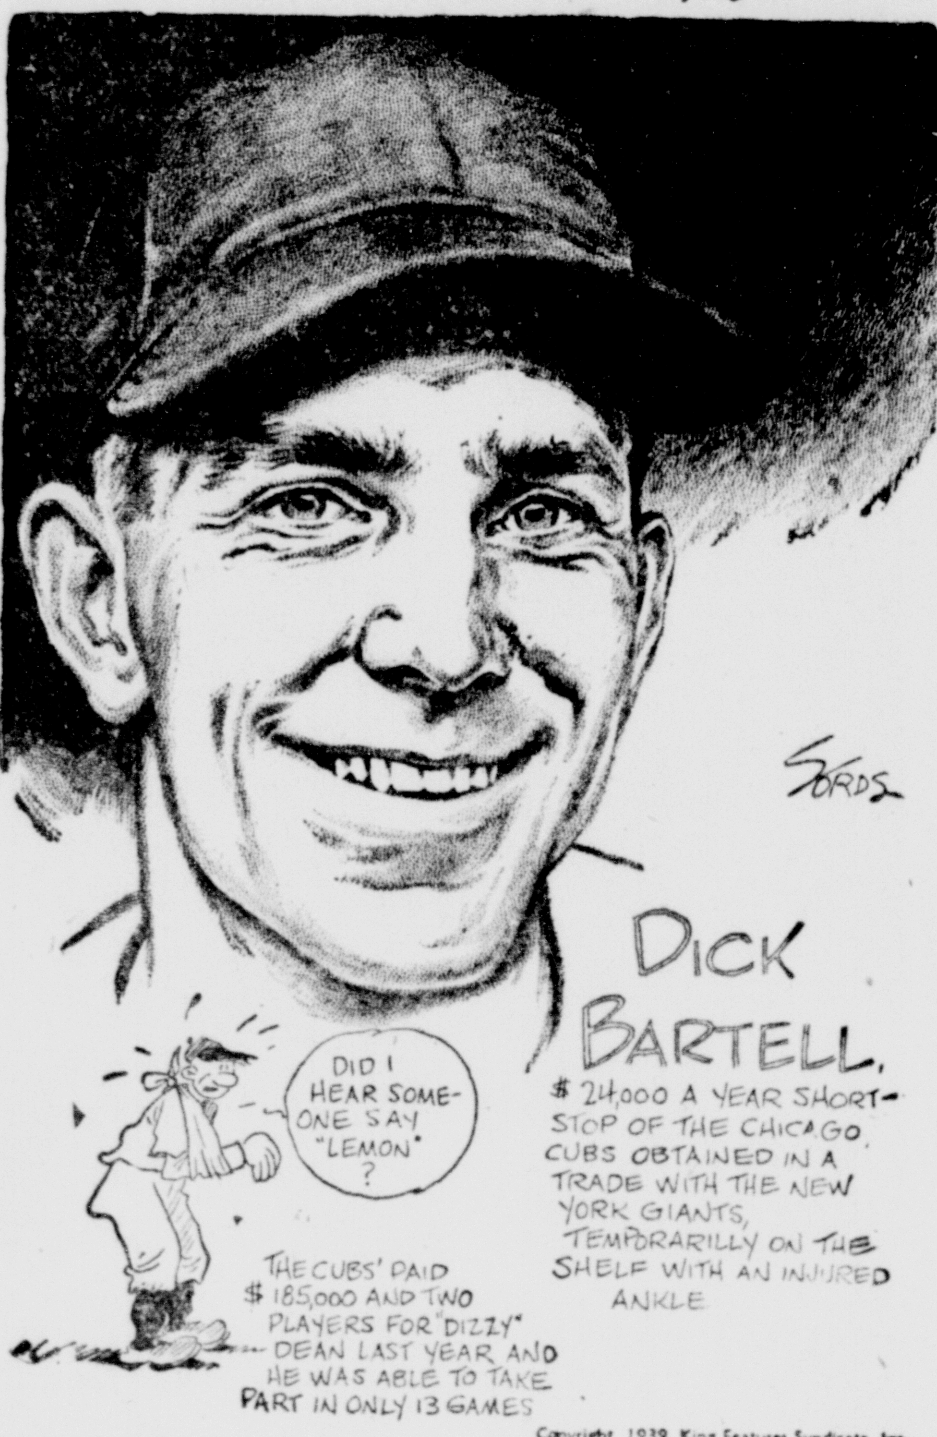

The New Castle Rifle Club members will gather at the Cathedral range tonight at 7:30 o'clock for a practice shoot and will also have a shoot Tuesday and Thursday at the local range.

Friday the New Castle club will go to Youngstown for the final Penn-Ohio match of the year. The locals have won the second-half title, and will have a championship shoot with McDonald, Ohio Rifle Club at the Youngstown range on Friday, April 28.

The New Castle club will participate in the rifle tourney at Youngstown Saturday, April 22, the shoot will start at 1 p. m. and continue until 11 p. m.

CUBS STUNG AGAIN? - - By Jack Sords

DICK BARTELL
$24,000 A YEAR SHORT-STOP OF THE CHICAGO CUBS OBTAINED IN THE TRADE WITH THE NEW YORK GIANTS, TEMPORARILY ON THE SHELF WITH AN INJURED ANKLE

Fans pick 'em—The main stem buzzed like a bee hive today. Fanning bees were quite the thing. The curb stoners were a busy lot, discussing the opening of the baseball season and the potential winners. Here are a few predictions picked up along the street—Eddy Halmes, "The two Ohio teams," Cincinnati and Cleveland." . . . Glynn Thomas, "Yankees and Cleveland." . . . "Fuzzy" Raffell, "Detroit and Pittsburgh." . . . Harry Culbertson, "Cincinnati." . . . The National League with a close fight between Boston and Cleveland in the American. The Yanks will finish third." . . . Bob Sherman, "The two New York teams." . . . Phil G. Greer, "It looks like another sub-way world series." . . . Guy Francoia, "The Cubs wins and the Yanks." . . . Bill Burton, "The two New York clubs." . . . Bill Semler, "Yankees and Cincinnati." . . . L. B. MacAnaney, "Who can beat the Yanks? In the National, a close fight between Cincinnati and the Cubs." . . . Ed Fritz and "Bugs" Walther, members of the sports department, select the Yanks and Cincinnati.

Having perused a basket full of material forwarded to this desk during the past two months, the Rambling Reporter herewith presents his perennial treatise entitled, "How They'll Finish in '39." National League—"Bill" McCormick's Cincinnati Reds have everything necessary to cop the banner, hitting, pitching and fielding, not to mention aggressiveness and team spirit. The middle of the infield is shaky, true, but that should not prevent the Reds from satisfying pennant hungry fans. The "Reds" moundsmen, Vander Meer, Moore, Derringer, Schott, Ray Davis, Grissom and Walters, should do a fancy bit of twirling. The Giants shape up as the second strongest outfit. If Hubbell and Schumacher aid Terry's casting department, the Giants will be on top of the Reds all the way through. The trade that brought Bill Jurgens and Frank Demaree from the Cubs, and the addition of Zek Bonura, has strengthened the Giants.

The Chicago Cubs, with Bill Lee, Clay Bryant, Gabby Hartnett and possible help from "Dizzy" Dean, looks like a third place winner. Our Pittsburgh Pirates open with practically the same team that blew the flag last fall. While the other teams have added strength, the Pirates are standing pat. The Pies couldn't win it last year and hardly figure to have the championship stuff. The team that may fool everybody is St. Louis. The Cards are blessed with speed and power. The outfield combination can match anything in the loop. Pitching holds the answer. With steady flinging, the Cards may spring a surprise by copping the pennant. . . . Brooklyn and Boston should follow in order, although the Dodgers may prove a tougher club than many believe it is. The surest thing in the National is that the Phils will adorn the cellar berth. Fans can expect another typical National League race.

Double-Header Basketball Discussed For Colleges Of District Next Season

PITTSBURGH, April 17.—At the annual confab of district coaches and athletic directors Saturday Carnegie Tech's Buddy Overend was elected to succeed Waynesburg's Frank Wolf as president of the Tri-State Intercollegiate Association.

Chief discussion in the way of new business concerned the possibility of putting basketball on a double-header basis next season. It was pointed out that numerous attempts to promote the sport along that line had met with only mediocre success in the past, with the exception of the 4600 turnout for the first Tech-Duquesne game last January.

Reports of that success appear to have revived hopes in the double-header idea with the qualification that only first-rate attractions would do the trick. Leading district schools—Duquesne, Washington-Jefferson, Westminster, Geneva, Bethany, Waynesburg and West Virginia—offered to co-operate in such adventure. The site suggested was Duquesne Garden.

President Will Toss First Ball At Washington

Senators And Yanks Set For 1939 Season Opening Battle; Gomez Vs. Krakauskas

By LEON W. SHLOSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 17.—"Frank" Roosevelt, a veteran right-hander, making his next-to-last appearance as a big-leaguer—unless he decides to try for a new contract next year—went to the pitcher's mound today as the New York Yankees and Washington Senators started the game of baseball on its second hundred years.

The big fellow, who has a job in the off-season as president of the United States, was filling his seventh consecutive opening-day assignment, equalling the performance record set by another famous right-hander—Woodrow Wilson.

F. D. R., as the fans know Roosevelt, will fog the first toss of the national pastime's centennial year into the diamond at 3 p. m. whereupon Vernon Gomez and Joseph Krakauskas will shoulder the pitching duties for the Yanks and Senators, respectively—unless a fourth performer, Jupiter Pluvius, interferes.

Rain fell most of yesterday, and early this morning. Nevertheless, the most pretentious opening day program in 30 years began unrolling early.

"Opening day"—the tingling words that have always meant baseball, the capital, the president, the greatest show on earth. The day belonging exclusively to the game which has hurled wars, survived scandals and laughed at depressions and disasters. The day that first reached full significance in America's consciousness in 1910, when William Howard Taft shocked the somnolent pre-war sobriety of Washington by clattering to the old, unpainted board ballpark in a canopied buggy to toss the first presidential "first ball."

This morning the Yankees and Senators were to pay tribute at Arlington National cemetery to Maj. Gen. Abner Doubleday who, as a prep school senior, introduced baseball to his school mates at Cooperstown, N. Y., in 1839.

WAREHOUSEMEN OUT ON STRIKE AT PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH, April 17.—With contract negotiations stymied, a strike was called today in 13 Pittsburgh warehouses by the A. F. of L. Teamsters Union. About 200 regular employees and 500 temporary employees were affected by the call, which followed an unsuccessful all-night parley.

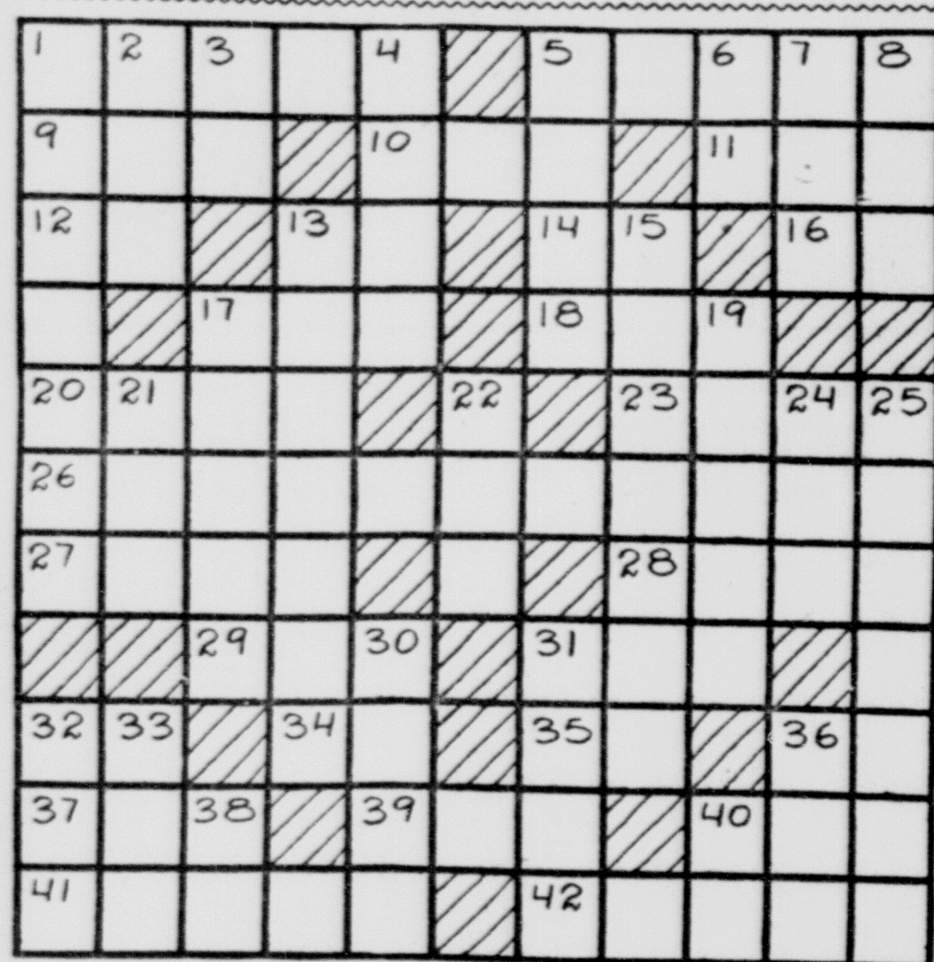

Picket lines were set up at day-break. A general five-cent increase in wages and a guarantee of six hours per day each day employees report for work were the stumbling blocks in negotiations. It was understood.

Sir Joshua Swan, pioneer of the incandescent lamp, made the first artificial silk. He was looking for a new type of filament for the lamp, and squeezed a wood and cotton pulp mixture through tiny holes, producing a thread somewhat like the silk-worms.

"FIREWATER" APPROPRIATE NAME
 "Firewater" was an appropriate name for some of the liquor once sold to the American Indians. Often, says a writer in Collier's Weekly, it was a boiled concoction consisting of alcohol, ginger, molasses, tobacco and red pepper that made real whisky seem mild.
